Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

The fabric shower curtain is disclosed and claimed as being coated with a "layer of waterproof basic color". The term "color" does not indicate the material that is used but merely it's appearance. It is not possible from the disclosure to make the device.

Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, the term "color" is vague and indefinite, as disclosed above. The phrase "invisible or hidden" is likewise vague and indefinite, due to it's alternative nature. It is also not clear how and to whom the device is "invisible or hidden". The last paragraph is narrative in form and subjective in content. In claim 2, "can also be" renders the claim indefinite. Also, "in an alternative manner" is indefinite.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gainer in view of Neer.

Gainer discloses a fabric panel 22 with a "coating" panel 24 which has cutouts 25, the coating panel being attached to fabric panel 22 via heat activated adhesive. It would have been obvious to modify Neer whereby he has a coating panel 24 adhered to the opposite side as well. Providing rings for attachment to a rod is taught by Neer and it would have been obvious to modify Gainer to be a curtain type shade in view of this teaching. These claims are addressed as best understood.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
